The Silver Spurs Farm, Jaipur

Silver Spurs Farm is a tastefully developed property replete with large lawns, handsome stables and an equestrian centre. Silver Spurs is geared to receive people from all walks of life ranging from tourists looking for good quality accommodation in a beautiful home with serene surroundings and top of the line modern facilities to serious riders looking for a dressage or show-jumping lesson.

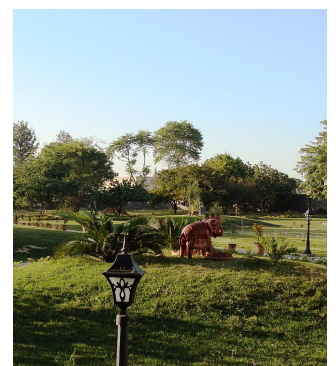

The Rooms

The farm has five clean, appealing and well appointed rooms with attached spacious en suite bathrooms. Four of the rooms have a private balcony, while the fifth shares access to a large front terrace. There is a unique concept whereby each suite has an individual roof with open air common terraces, very much like common courtyards – but with plenty of elbow room! Each bedroom has a mini bar fridge and tea/coffee kettles, besides flat screen televisions with satellite connections. In each room there is a king sized double bed with an extra trundle pull-out bed.

What to Expect

Col Sandeep and his wife Tara Dewan are wonderful hosts with the farm being an equestrian delight. The farm is an oasis with lush green gardens, and a marvelous change from the city life. You are warmly welcomed not only from Sandeep and Tara but also by a variety of pet animals present on the farm along with the pleasant environment which gives you an overwhelming feeling of peace and tranquility. The horses are stabled in large airy loose boxes each with a fan and sun shade. The first thing you would notice about the horses is how relaxed they are. They all are clearly kept in the highest of standards and are interesting to the new visitors.

Location

The Silver Spurs Farm is located 300 m off the main Sirsi highway and about 20 km from the Airport. One is also just 20 Kms from Jaipur city centre.
