

The Sol
Goa

The Sol, Goa, is designed around a central courtyard, drawing inspiration from nature. Away from the city chatter, The Sol is nestled in the picturesque beauty of Nerul in north Goa, a region that was once a private getaway for Portuguese officials of rank. With a dramatic view of Candolim church, The Sol has the calm Sinquerim river flowing on one side and lush paddy fields bordered by fresh green hillocks on the other. Designed to be an abode of calm and serenity, the accommodations include 16 luxury rooms and 4 luxury suites.

LAXMAN SAGAR, PALI

Sprawling over 32 acres at the fringe of the Badlands of India, Lakshman Sagar was built in the late 19th century as a hunting lodge by the then Thakur of Raipur, Lakshman Singh Ji to host other noble families and British emissaries. As a continuation of the hospitality and traditions of the house of Raipur, Kunwar Manavjeet Singh Raipur has envisioned a Getaway much like his forefather Thakur Lakshman Singh Ji, though with a conservationist view of his heritage and surroundings, all manifested through the endless details in the architecture & design, the cuisine, and the well thought of activities tailored personally for his guests in a captivating natural topography ideal for relaxation.

Guests may choose their own private dining and lounging spaces in the restored Zanana & Mardana section from the choicest of Rajasthani cuisine Raipur has been known for in all of Marwar, or a few other minimal international options. Other special dining options include a dinner on the lake or a visit to Raipur Fort for a lunch and walk-through with Kunwar Manavjeet Singh Raipur showcasing all the family memorabilia.
