

Coronavirus: Destination Updates as on 7 January 2021

SRI LANKA

Tourism Update: In light of the new strain of Coronavirus, the Sri Lankan government has postponed reopening of commercial flights until further notice. The country, however, is making good progress and has reported an 84% recovery rate as on 06 January 2021.

Please click here for detailed statistics and other updates.

Click here to read more on our proposed post-Covid preparations.